

Anne “Andy” Carrington Warren grew up in rural South Boston, Virginia. After receiving her undergraduate degree from Virginia Tech, she finished her PharmD from the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2015. She went on to complete her PGY-1 residency with Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital in Virginia and moved to Asheville to complete her PGY-2 residency in academia and ambulatory care at the Mountain Area Health Education Center (MAHEC). She currently serves as an Inpatient Clinical Pharmacist where she splits her time between the inpatient Family Practice Service at Mission and in clinic at the MAHEC Family Health Center. Her areas of interest include transitions of care, collaborative interdisciplinary practice, diabetes management, and population health. Outside of work, Dr. Warren enjoys riding her horse, Triple Down, spending time with family and friends, travel, running/hiking, and anything Disney!
