

MACARY WECKMARCINIAK, PharmD, BCACP, BCPS, FAPhA

Marciniak is an Associate Professor in the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC). She is committed to advancing pharmacist-provided care in community-based settings. She serves as the Director of the PGY1 Community-based Pharmacy Residency Program, which includes innovative practice sites across the state and is one of the oldest and largest programs of its kind in the nation. She also directs a Community-based Mental Health Fellowship, in partnership with UNC Counseling and Psychological Services and Campus Health. During her tenure at UNC, she has had the distinct pleasure to mentor and precept over 120 community-based residents and fellows. In addition to her teaching and administrative roles at UNC, Macary serves as an Advisor for the Pre-Pharmacy Club, Phi Delta Chi Professional Pharmacy Fraternity and the Carolina Association of Pharmacy Students (CAPS), a unified professional organization that includes membership in the American Pharmacists Association (APhA), the American Society of Health-system Pharmacists (ASHP) and the North Carolina Association of Pharmacists (NCAP). Macary received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree with Honors from UNC and completed a PGY1 Community-based Pharmacy Residency Program with the University of Maryland. Macary was a faculty member at Albany College of Pharmacy in Albany, New York before returning to her alma mater. Macary is a Board Certified Ambulatory Care Pharmacist (BCACP), a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist (BCPS) and a Fellow of the American Pharmacists Association (FAPhA). She has completed certificate training programs in diabetes, immunizations, medication therapy management, mental health first aid, point-of-care testing, self-care and tobacco cessation. Macary's involvement with NCAP began during her time as a student at UNC. She was an intern for the association at the time NCAP was created and was a member of the NCAP Program Committee and Legal/Regulatory Affairs Committee. As a pharmacist, Macary has served the Association as a Member of the Board of Directors (2016-2018), Member of the Community Care Practice Forum Executive Committee (2009-2015), Co-Chair of the Immunization Committee (2014-2015), and Member of the Immunization Task Force (2009-2013).
